

INTRODUCTION

Albion Rovers Football Club takes the protection and well-being of all young people involved with the club very seriously and supports all initiatives and policies put in place by the sport's governing body, the Scottish Football Association.

It is our aim to ensure that all aspects of the policies and procedures below are fully implemented and are reviewed on a regular basis in light of experience.

Our Safeguarding Officer is an important part of the club team and has the full support of the Board of Directors.

His contact details are on the website and we would encourage anyone who has concerns or who wishes advice or further information to contact him.
